YPA SENIOR COMPETITION RULES

1. The Competition is a Society Competition, open to societies affiliated to the YPA. the owners of the individual entries reaching the required standard will be awarded a YPA Medal Certificate at the Annual Convention of the Association.

2. The eight classes will be as follows:

National Class (Walker Tice Trophy) A study of the adhesive postage stamps, including revenue stamps accepted for postal use, of the United Kingdom, but specifically excluding the stamps of the Irish Free State, and of the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man after postal independence.

British Commonwealth Class (Stuart & Mary Beith Cup) A study of adhesive postage stamps, including revenue stamps accepted for postal use, issued by countries whilst members of the British Commonwealth, but excluding those from foreign countries and the United Kingdom.

Foreign Class (The Duncan Carter Memorial Salver) A study of adhesive stamps, including revenue stamps accepted for postal use, issued by foreign countries and countries during a period when not members of the British Commonwealth, but excluding stamps of the United Kingdom.

Postal History Class (Eric Buckley Tankard) A study of postal markings, and/or the USE of adhesive postage stamps.

Aero-philatelic Class (T.E. Field Cup) a study of philatelic material, prepared for, or carried by airmail, official or unofficial. Entries may also include material commemorating aerial events and meetings, relevant advertisements, photographs etc., as is absolutely necessary.

Postal Stationery Class (R.C. Tice Trophy) A study of cards, envelopes, wrappers and other forms issued by Postal Authorities, usually but not always with a franking device printed thereon. Stationery printed or used by private bodies under licence from Postal Authorities, and stationery bearing additional postage stamps are also permitted.

Thematic Class (Lawrence Moore Fruit Bowl) The illustration of a theme in which postal material is the predominant element. Apart from the minimum of maps and drawings giving information relevant to the entry, non-philatelic material should be excluded. The study of a single stamp is not a thematic entry and will be disqualified or transferred to another class, at the discretion of the YPA.

Cinderella Class (The YPA Cinderella Trophy) A study of fiscals, telegraph stamps and forms, bogus and phantom issues, forgeries, Christmas seals, advertising and exhibition labels, covers and souvenir sheets, charity and political labels and postal stationery cut-outs. Private posts may include William Dockwra's Post, Peter Williamson's Post, circular delivery companies, omnibus parcel stamps, carrier stamps, railway and tramway letter and parcel stamps, airway letter stamps, private telegraphs, off-shore island issues and postal strike material. Coins, medals, cigarette and tea cards, train and bus tickets are specifically excluded except that these, with postcards and other material of an ephemeral nature, may be used with discretion to illustrate an entire.

Literature Class (Thomas Foster Memorial Trophy) This is a book, article, club journal etc., written or edited by the entrants during the three years to December 31st of the year of entry. The award will go to the entry considered by the judges to have made the greatest contribution to philatelic knowledge during the three years prior to the date of the award.

Guidelines for Postal History, Postal Stationery and Thematic Classes are in the YPA Handbook.

Details of the marking system for all classes are presented in the YPA Handbook.

All entries should be presented to the Competition Secretary at the Spring Management Meeting.

JUNIOR COMPETITIONS

These Classes will open to juniors affiliated to the YPA and submitted through a Society or from a School stamp club and submitted directly to the competition secretary.

There are 3 classes:

Class A a 16 page entry from those aged 16 to 18 years of age.

Class B an 8, 12 or 16 page entry from those aged 12 and under 16.

Class C a 6 or 8 page entry from those under 12 years old.

Marks will be awarded as follows:

Philatelic knowledge or knowledge of a theme	30%
Writing-up and arrangement	50%
Philatelic material (range and condition)	20%

Judges will only be made aware of the class entered.
